

SITE 2024

The 2nd International Conference on Smart Industry, Technologies and Environment

November 08-09-10, 2024, Hammamet – Tunisia

Presentation

The second edition of the international conference on Smart Industry, Technology and Environment "SITE'2024" aims to bring together academicians, researchers, professionals and experts from various fields to share their latest findings, innovations and best practices. It consists of keynotes, oral sessions and poster presentations. SITE'2024 facilitates interdisciplinary collaboration and promotes sustainable development by exploring cutting-edge advancements in various fields. The international scientific committee selects best papers for publication in specialized journals, considering their alignment with the conference's scope. These chosen papers are recommended for publication to guarantee their quality and significance within the research community.
